

Cloud computing

Module - 1

1 - What is cloud computing?

Ans: cloud computing is delivery of computing services over a internet .

2 -Describe cloud computing deploy model.

Ans: public: services offered over a public internet by third party provider

Private: Exclusives cloud infrastructure for single organisation , either on permission or hosted by third party.

Hybrid:A combination of public and private cloud allowing data and application to share each other

3 -What are components of cloud computing?

Ans: client infrastructure

Application

Services

Runtime cloud

Storage

Security

Front platform

Backend platform

Cloud based delivery model

Network

4 -cloud computing advantage and disadvantage Advantages of Cloud

Computing.

Advantages of cloud computing :

Cost-efficient

Scalable

Accessible

Reliable disaster recovery

Disadvantages of cloud computing:

Security risk

Downtime

Limited control

Potential long term cost

Edit with WPS Office